

04/11/10 - Saved By Grace

Download

This hymn was one of Fanny Crosby's favourite poems, known as her "soul's poem". She said of it: "There is one hymn I have written which has never been published. I call it my soul's poem. Sometimes when I am troubled, I repeat it to my-self, for it brings comfort to my heart." She shared this poem during one of Moody's conferences.

Subsequently, George Stebbins wrote the music for this hymn.

Lyrics: Fanny J. Crosby

Music: George C. Stebbins

Some day the silver cord will break,
And I no more as now shall sing;
But oh, the joy when I shall wake
Within the palace of the King!

Refrain:

And I shall see Him face to face,
And tell the story? Saved by grace;
And I shall see Him face to face,
And tell the story? Saved by grace.

Some day my earthly house will fall.
I cannot tell how soon 'twill be;
But this I know? my All in All
Has now a place in Heav'n for me.

Some day, when fades the golden sun
Beneath the rosy tinted west,
My blessed Lord will say, "Well done!"
And I shall enter into rest.

Some day: till then I'll watch and wait,
My lamp all trimmed and burning bright,
That when my Savior opens the gate,

My soul to Him may take its flight.
